People Over Pipelines: Protecting our Homes and Water

Landowners, tribal members, and environmentalists convene for public event to protect Wisconsin from oil pipeline threat.

What: For the first time, groups across the state of Wisconsin are coming together to oppose Enbridge’s anticipated Line 61-Twin or Line 66 pipeline. Landowners, tribes, environmentalists, youth climate activists and other concerned community members will gather to learn from stories of other pipeline fights around the county and the potential impacts right here in Wisconsin.

The pipeline could jeopardize our major waterways, property rights, and the safety of our communities and climate. For more information go to: http://tinyurl.com/PeopleNotPipelines

Who:
Individuals and organizations who are opposed to, threatened by, or concerned about tar sands pipelines. These include tribal members, Enbridge easement-holders, environmentalists, youth activists and many others concerned about damage from tar sands.

Speakers include:
Jane Kleeb, Bold Alliance
The Youth Climate Intervenors
Mark Borchardt, 80 Feet Is Enough!
Paul DeMain, Bear Clan, Oneida/Ojibwe
Other impacted Wisconsinites including landowners, concerned community members and water advocates

When: Friday, October 27th at 6:30-9:30PM (doors open at 6:00PM)

Where: Hotel Marshfield, 2700 Central Ave., Marshfield, WI 54449

This event is being organized by a number of people, organizations, and coalitions concerned about building a broad movement to protect our homes and water from Enbridge’s Line 61-Twin or Line 66. This includes: 80 Feet is Enough!, Wisconsin Safe Energy (WiSE) Alliance, Sierra Club, 350-Madison, Wisconsin Youth Network, Brave Wisconsin, and Save Our Illinois Lands (SOIL)
